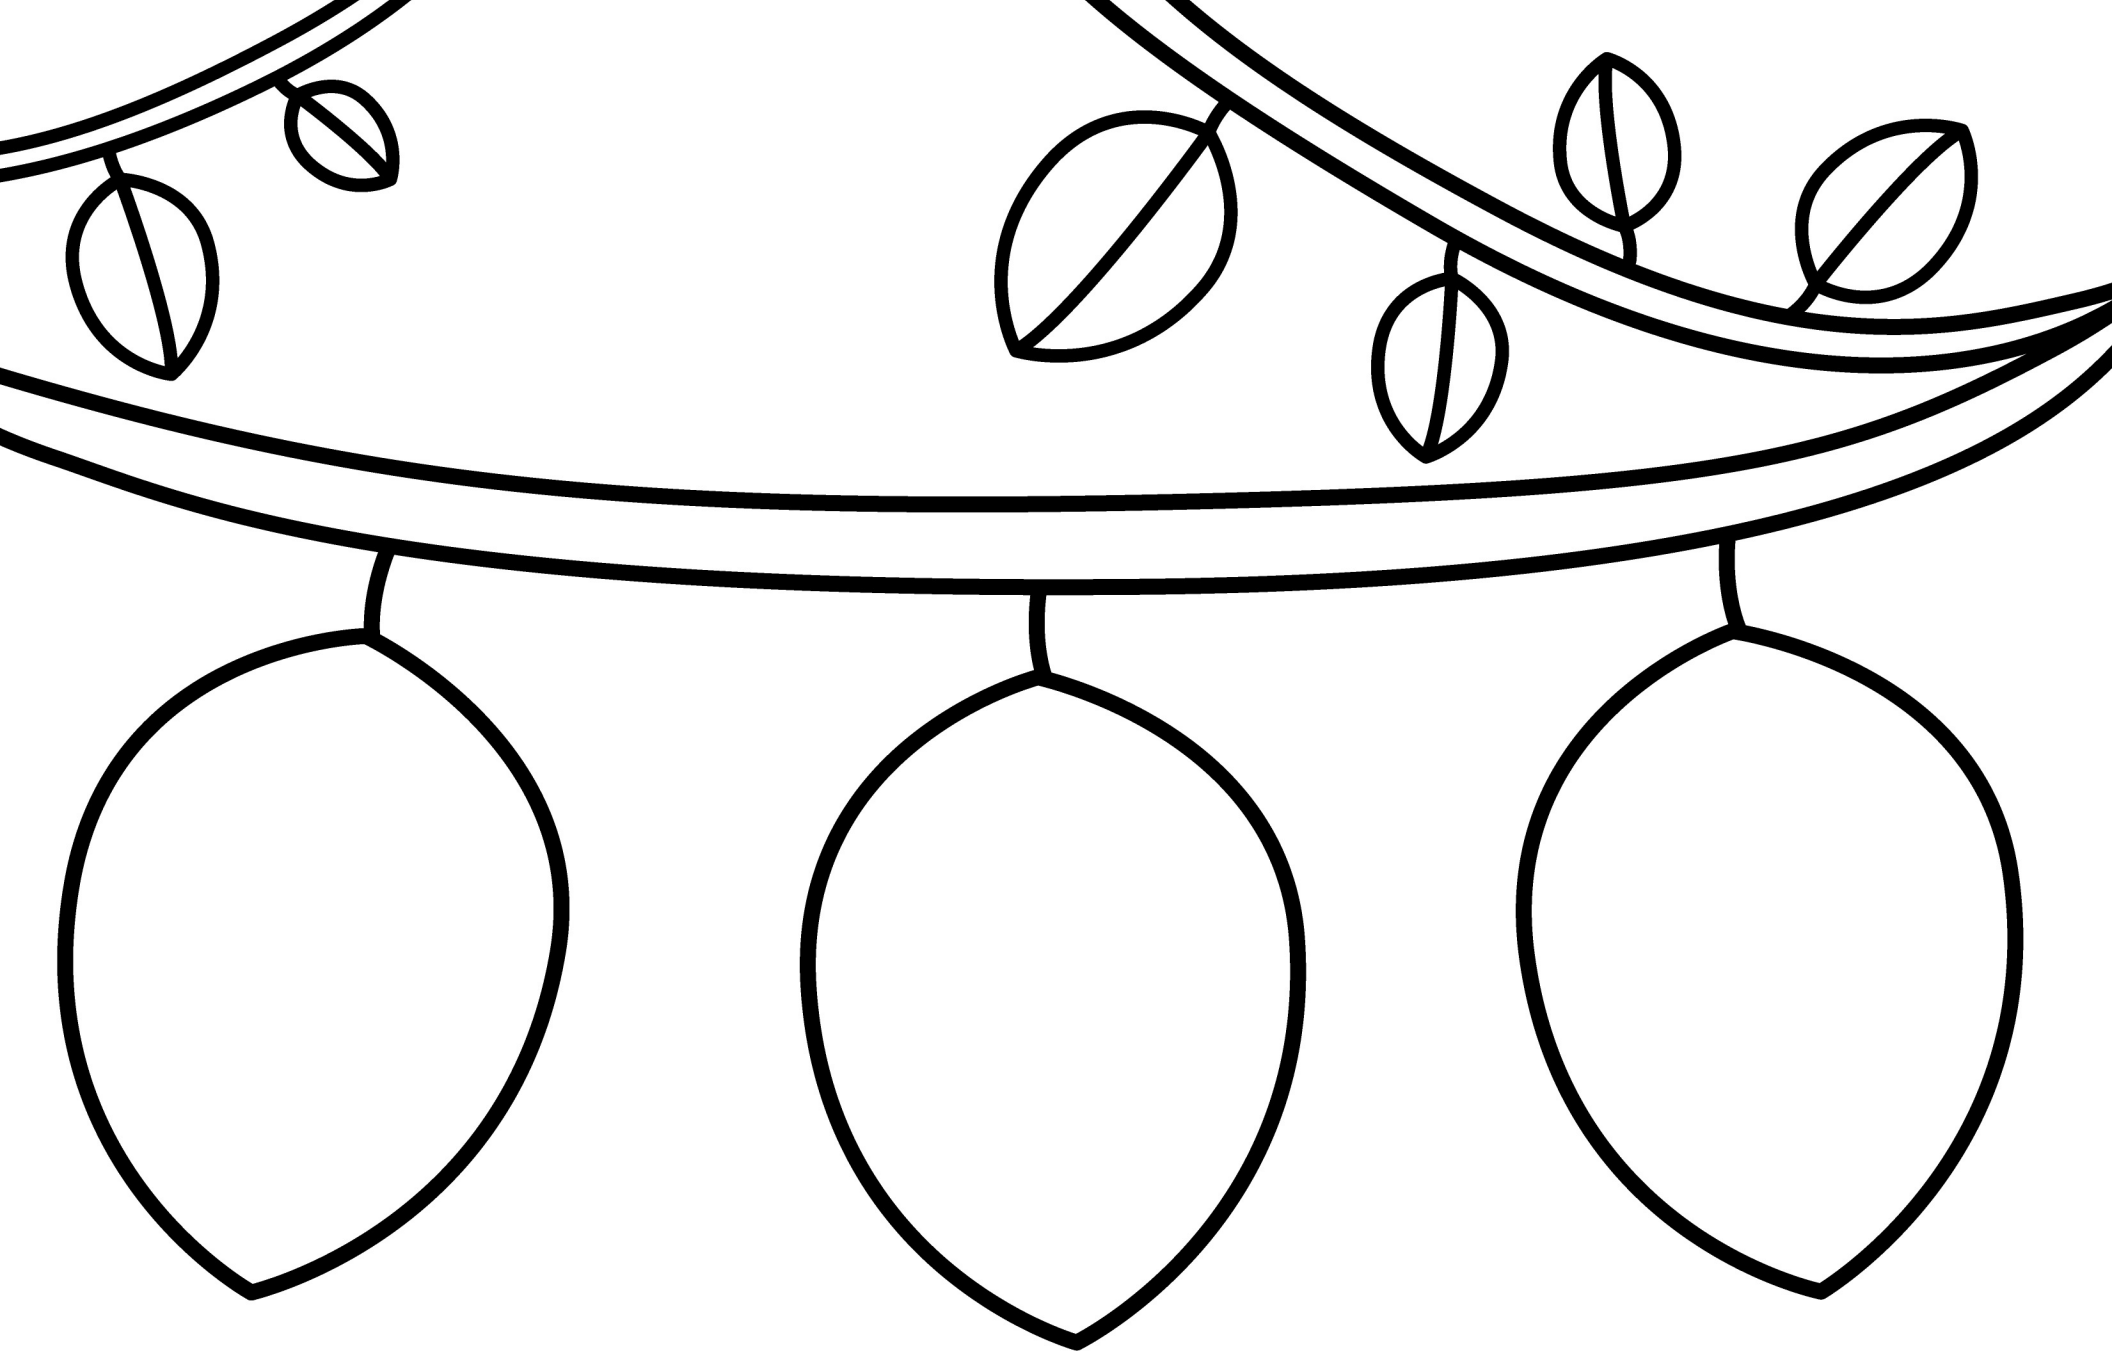
Word Awareness Activity

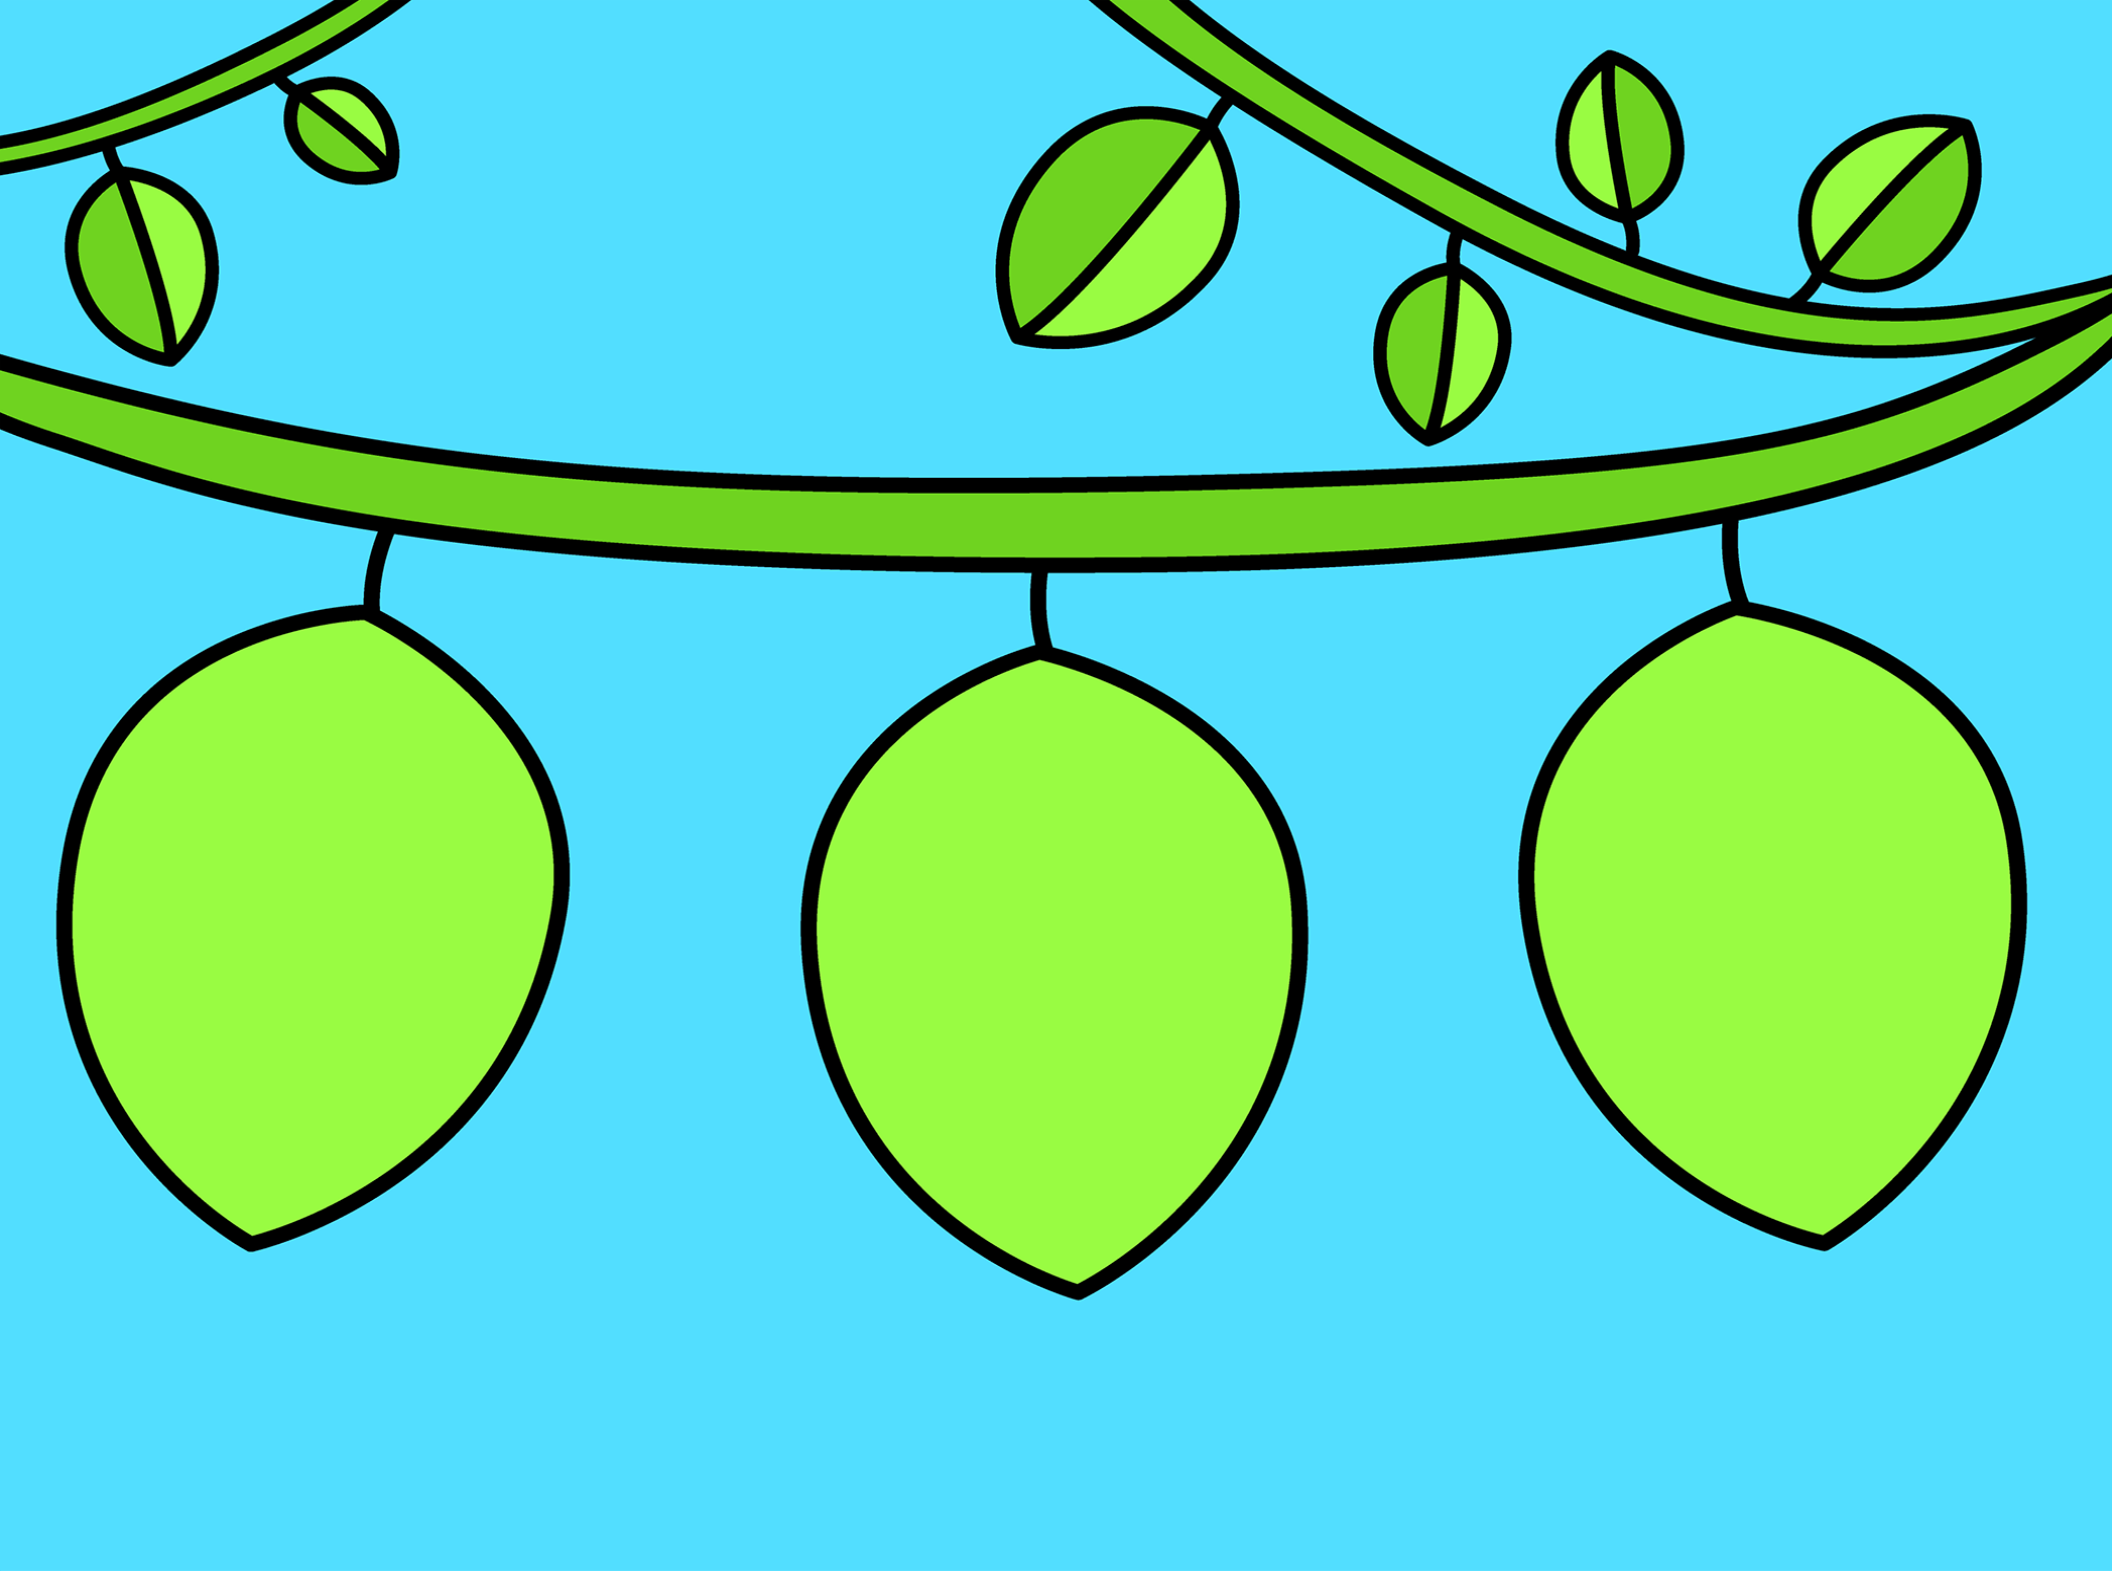
1. Read some of the 3-word sentences below.
2. Have the child repeat the sentence while setting a gem (or something similar) onto each leaf to represent each word.
3. Say the sentence slowly so the child can hear each word.

Sentences:

- The monkey swings.
- I see leaves.
- The leaves sway.
- Are you swinging?
- The sloth sleeps.
- It's raining hard.
- Feel the breeze.
- I hear monkeys.
- Monkeys are fun.
- The snake slithers.
- The frog jumps.
- Birds are loud.
- The tiger roars.
- See the python.
- What is that?
- The spider crawls.
- The vine breaks.
- Frogs are green.
- The bird sings.
- The panther sleeps.
- Apes are big.



© teachingmama.org



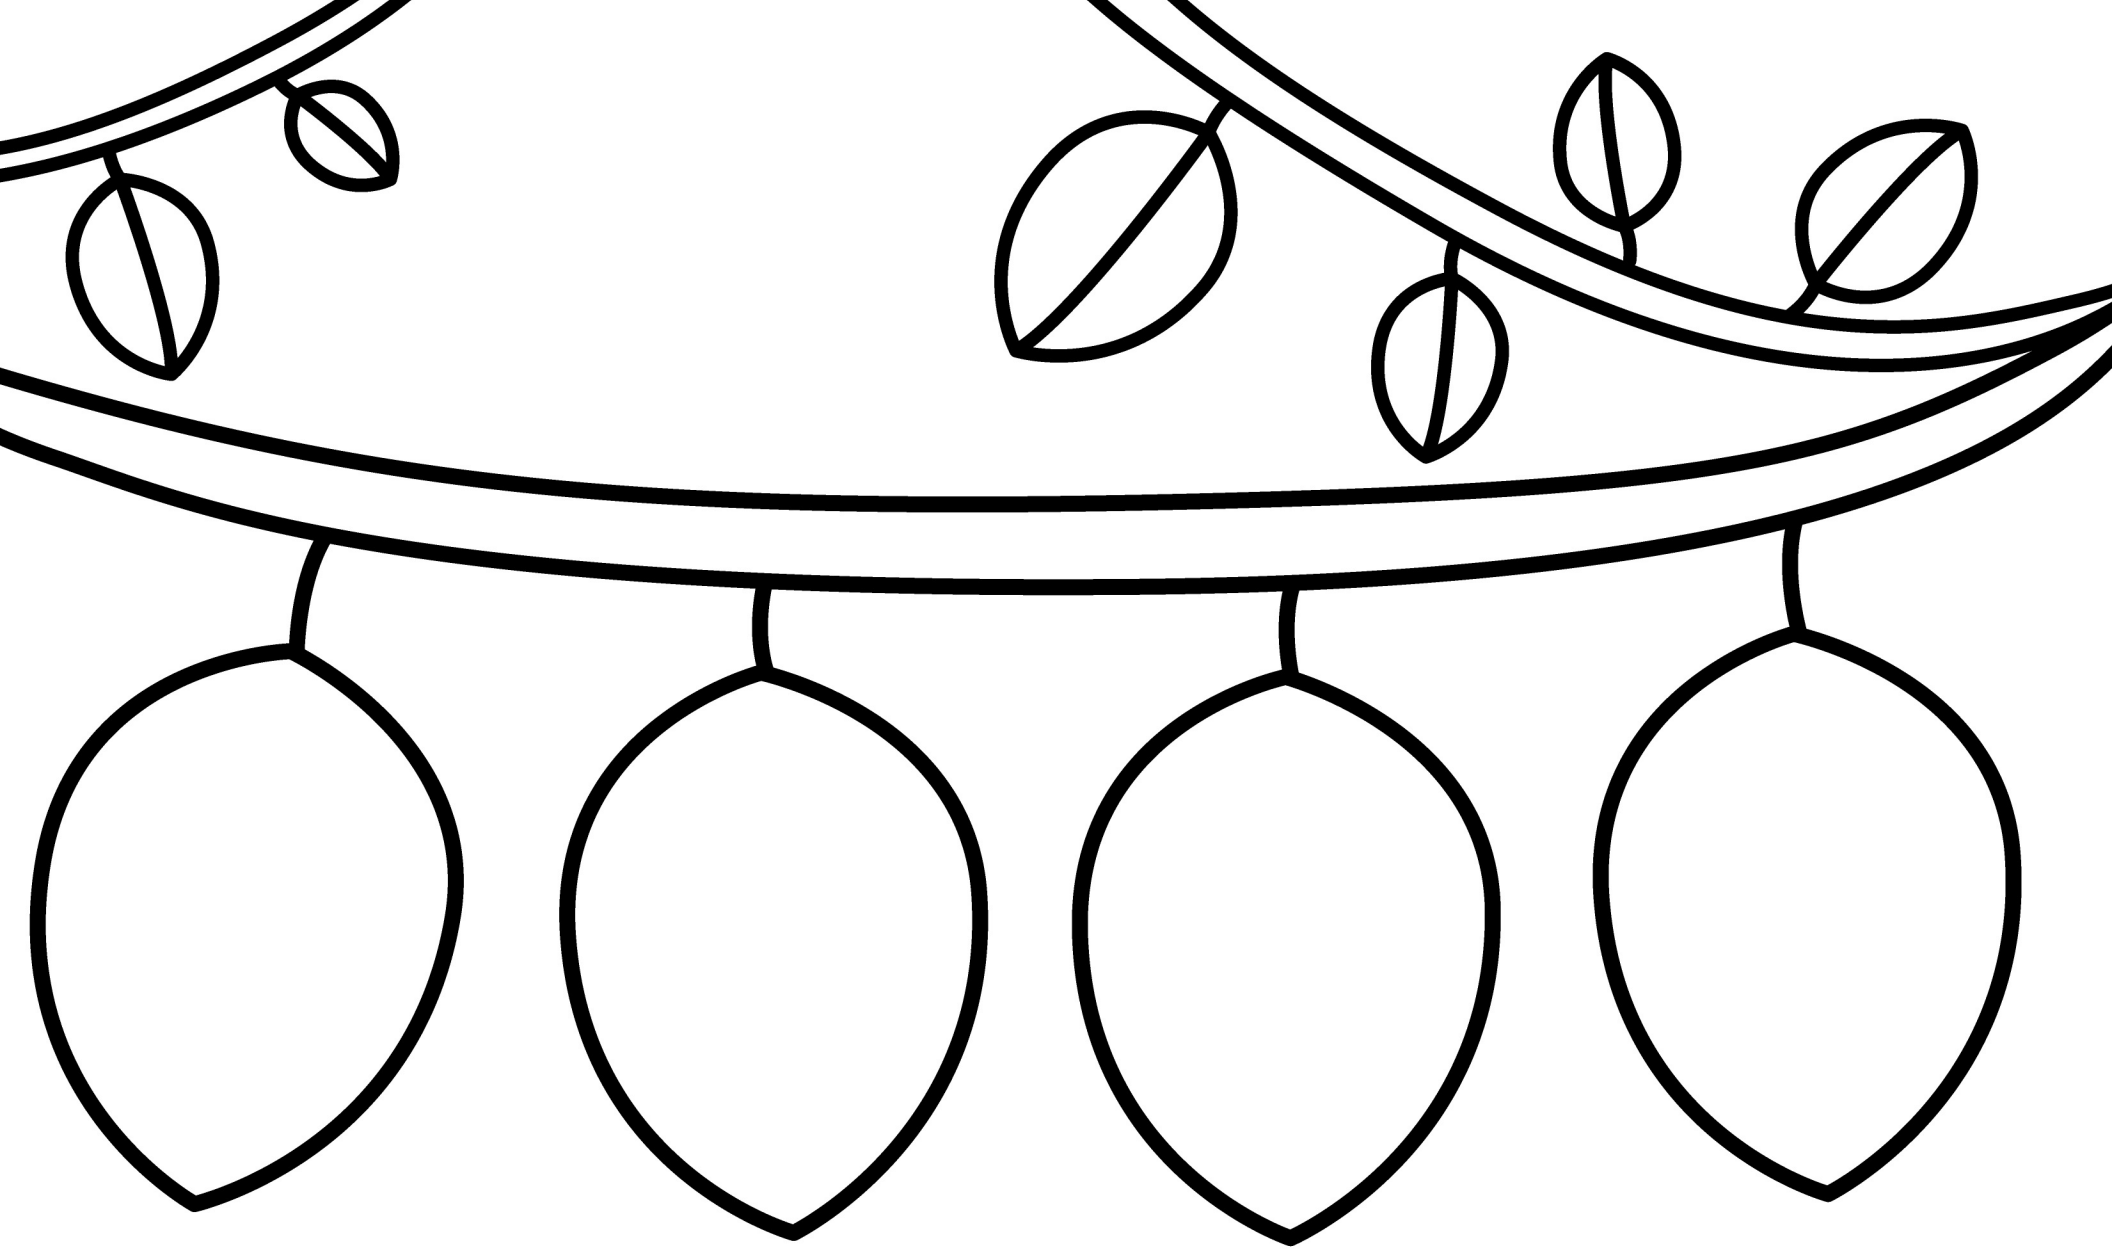
© teachingmama.org

Word Awareness Activity

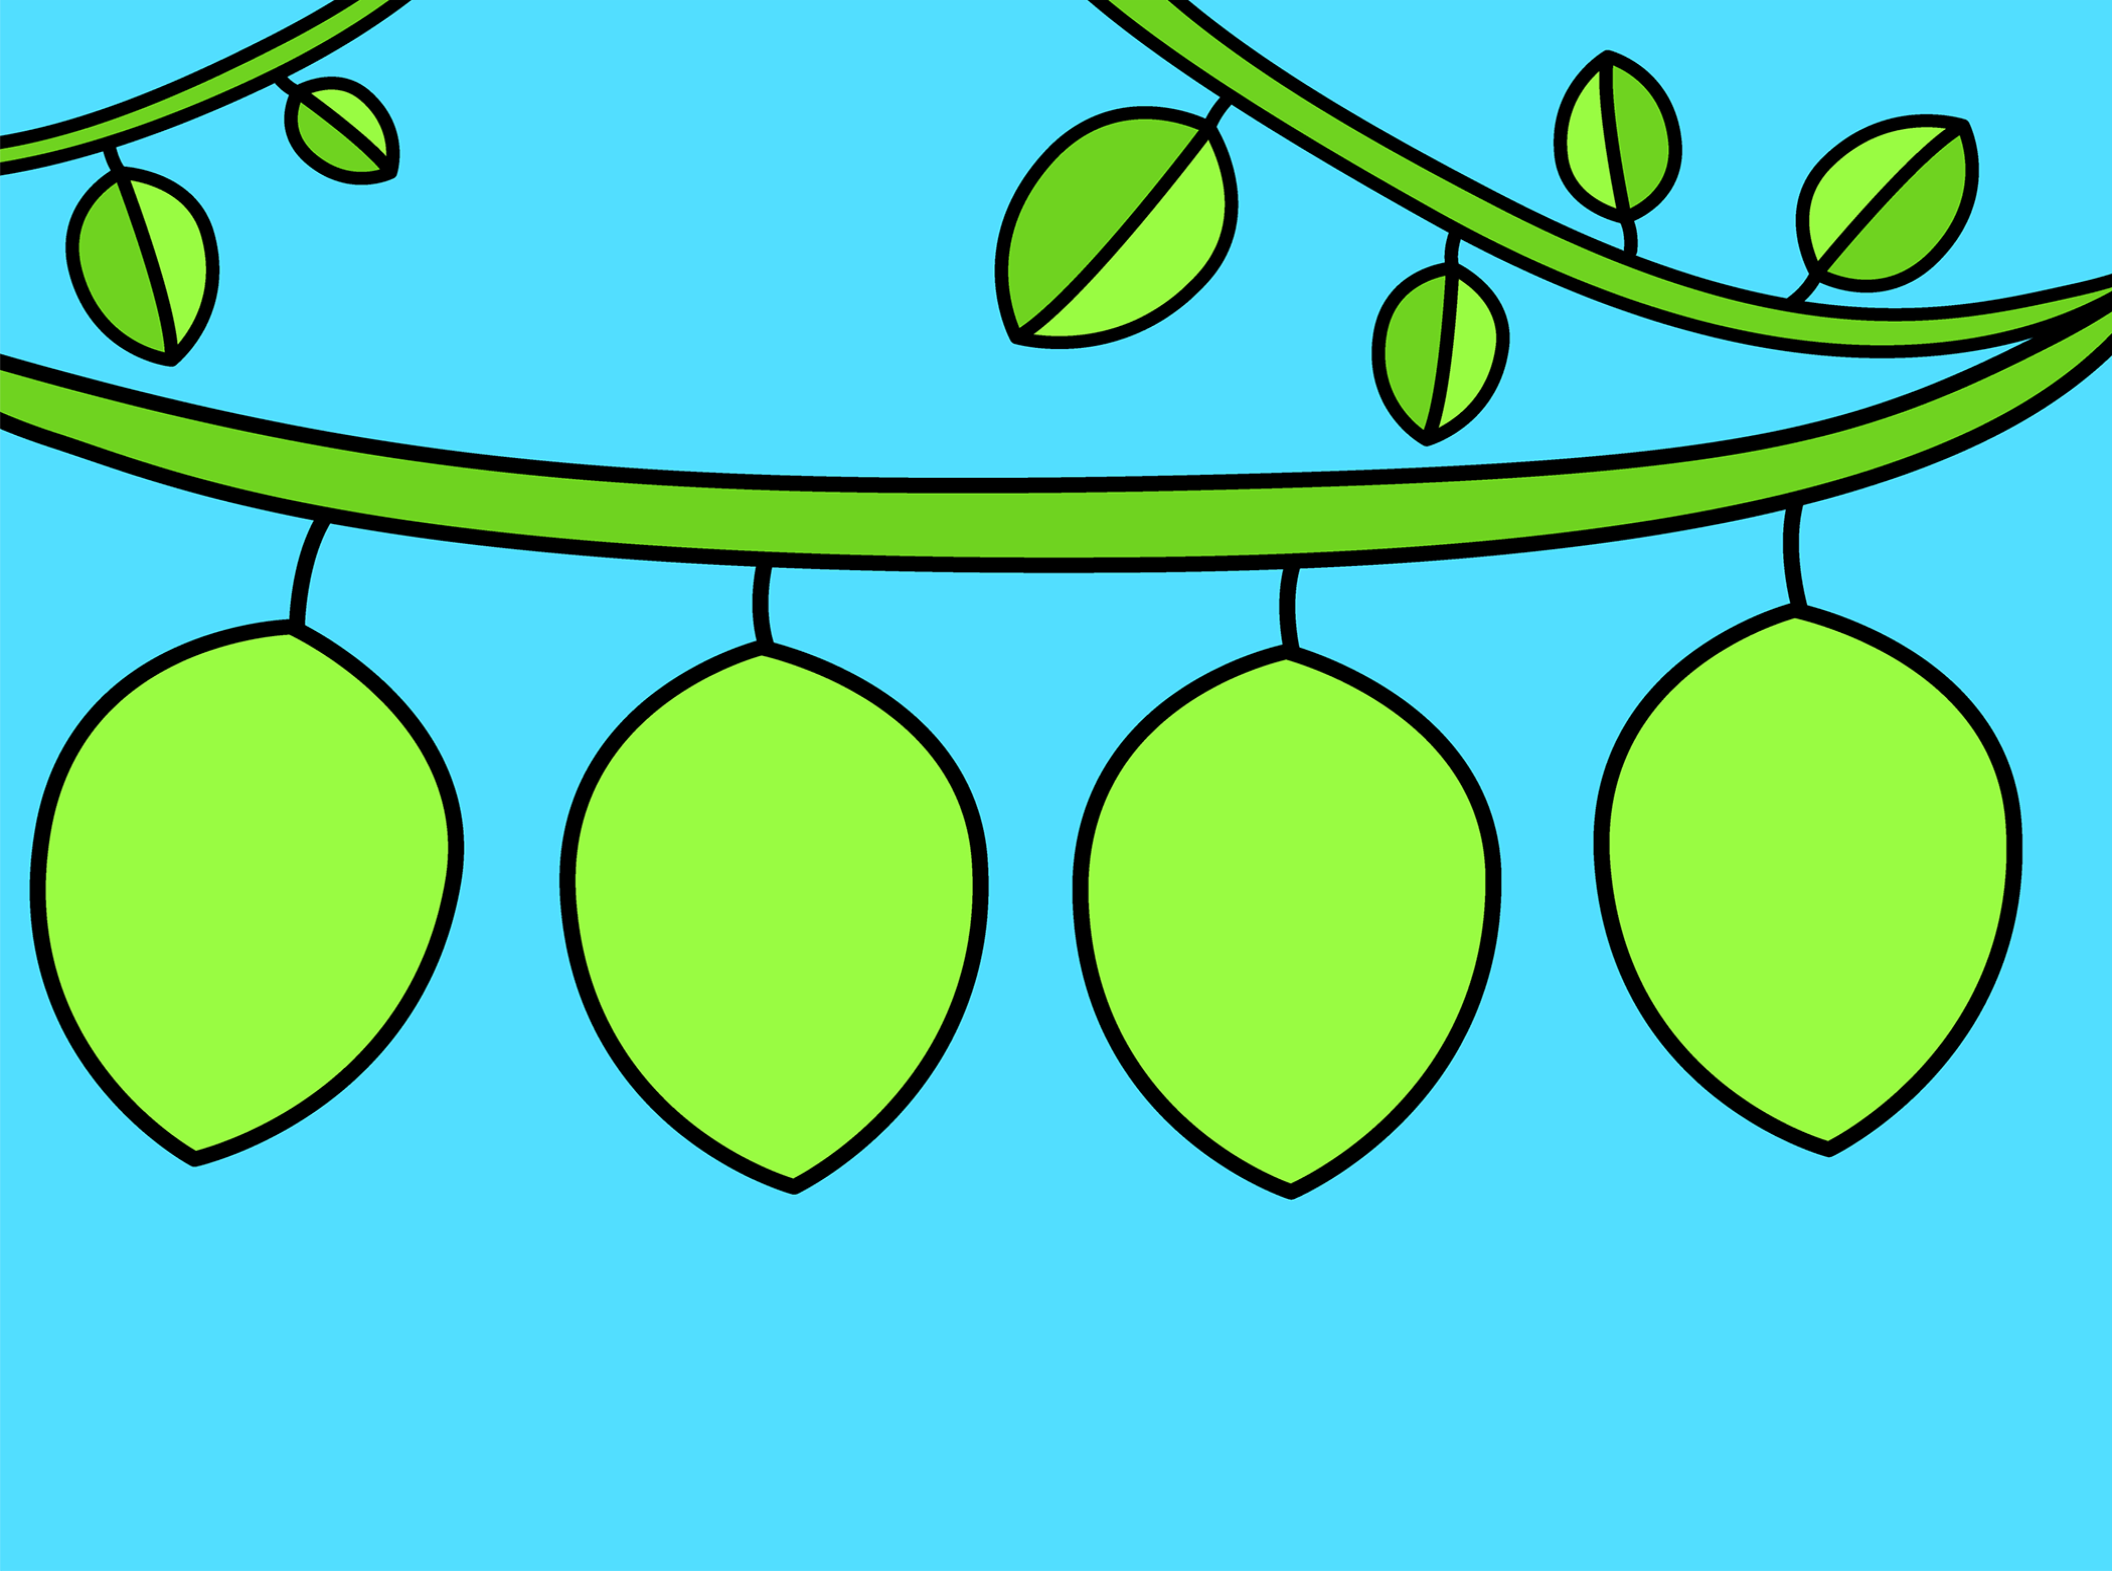
1. Read some of the 4-word sentences below.
2. Have the child repeat the sentence while setting a gem (or something similar) onto each leaf to represent each word.
3. Say the sentence slowly so the child can hear each word.

Sentences:

- Look at the bug.
- The snake slithers away.
- See the sloth sleeping.
- The lion roars loudly.
- The rain is soft.
- What is that sound?
- The ground is shaking.
- The vine is green.
- Look at the ground.
- A monkey swings high.
- The panther runs quickly.
- I see a toucan.
- The elephant is huge.
- The long vine sways.
- I hear loud insects.
- Watch out for snakes!
- The jungle is dark.
- The tiger looks hungry.



© teachingmama.org



© teachingmama.org