Snowman

I see a snowman. The sun is out. What will happen? Will the snowman stand? Or will the snowman fall? I look out the window. The tall snowman starts to get smaller and smaller. Soon, the snowman is almost to the grass. Oh, no! I see the snowman melt.

Color the picture that shows what happens to the snowman at the end of the story?

Down the Hill

Tim and Chip go to the top of the big hill. Tim hops on the sled first. Zoom, down he goes. Chip hops on his sled next. Zoom, down he goes. Crash, bang! Over a bump Chip goes. His sled cracks. Tim runs back up the hill to help Chip. Together, they slide back down the hill.

Color the picture that shows what cracks on the sledding hill.
