

Name: _____

The Big Shark

Jack was on the ship's deck. He looked over into the water and saw a shark! He said, "Shh!" to his brother Nick. They ran and hid behind a stack of sacks. Jack looked through a small crack and saw the shark's sharp teeth. "Quick, let's hide!" Jack whispered. They ran down below deck. Jack locked the door. "Now we are safe," Nick said. After ten minutes they returned to the deck. The shark was gone. "No swimming today," both boys said at the same time!

Name: _____

The Garden Bee

Pete the bee lived in the garden. His friend Lee lived by the big oak tree.

One day they went on an adventure.

They flew to a field full of wheat.

They looked for some sweet nectar.

“There is no nectar in this field of wheat”, said Lee. Let’s go back to the garden. The bees flew back and found what they were looking for.

The nectar was waiting for them in the center of the flowers. The happy bees sucked up the nectar. They were very happy.

Name: _____

A Birthday Splash

Today is Sam's birthday at the splash pad. Sam and his friends will get wet and have fun. They splash and play in the water. The hanging buckets fill with water. When the red one fills up, it flips over. Sam gets soaked! After they play, it is time for cake and ice cream. Sam's little brother Dylan makes a big mess with his cupcake. His face is full of chocolate! After he gets cleaned up, Sam takes him to run around the splash pad. Water play is always fun!

Name: _____

Building A Sandcastle

Emma and Ellie are going to build a sandcastle today. Emma grabs a bucket, and Ellie gets a shovel. They work side by side and fill the buckets with sand. They flip the buckets upside down. The castle is complete with towers and walls. They step back and smile at their sandcastle. As a finishing touch, Emma places a seashell at the top! Their mom snaps a pictures. Just as she walks away, a big wave comes and crashes into their sandcastle! It is destroyed. After a quick snack, they get back to work on building another sandcastle!

Name: _____

Soccer Camp

Harry is excited for soccer camp this summer. He puts on his cleats and grabs his ball. At camp, he meets lots of kids who also love soccer. They kick and dribble the ball. Coach Dan teaches them to pass the ball to each other as they run down the field. It is a hot day and the campers need a water break. After their rest break, Coach Dan splits up the kids into teams for a game. Harry is on the red team. Harry scores and his team wins! He can't wait to come back tomorrow.

Name: _____

Horseback Riding

Tina is going to horseback riding camp! She puts on her boots and helmet. First, the kids learn to groom the horses. Tina's horse is named Skipper. She is dark brown and very sweet. Tina takes a brush and strokes Skipper. Next, Tina practices getting up onto the horse. She sits on the saddle and is read to ride. She gives her instructor a thumbs up. The instructor teaches the kids to trot around the ring. Tina thinks it's fun to ride such a big animal.

Name: _____

Grandma's House

Over summer break, Mia visits her Grandma Molly at her house on Lake Michigan. Mia packed everything she she will need and a few books to read. When Mia arrives, Grandma has fresh cookies for her. First, they check out the garden and pick the ripe raspberries and blueberries. In the kitchen they get to work on making a berry pie! While the pie backs, Mia and Grandma sit on the porch reading their books. It is going to be a great summer!