Sweet Treats

I will take Mike to the bake shop. It is Valentine's Day and we need a sweet treat! Mike picks out a big cupcake. I pick out a slice of chocolate cake.

After we pay, we take a walk down the street. We stop at a bench and enjoy our sweet treats!

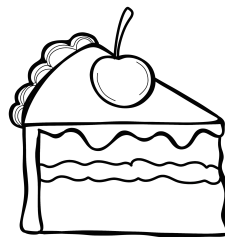

Color the items that they buy at the bake shop.

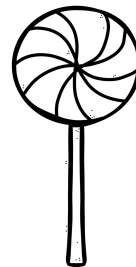

cupcake

chocolate

Candy Hearts

Candy hearts are my favorite treat on Valentine's Day. They are the best. Each heart has a message. The top of the pink heart says, Hug Me. The top of the green heart says, You Rock. The top of the blue heart says, Smile. The top of the purple heart says, XOXO. Which message is your favorite?

Color each message on the heart the correct color using the clues from the story.

The Rose's Thorn

It is Valentine's Day. I go to the garden in my backyard. I cut a rose off the bush. Ouch! The spike on the thorn pricks me. I drop the rose and run to the house. I wash the blood off my finger and place a band-aid around it. I go back outside and cut another red rose off the bush. I will not make the same mistake again.

How would you describe a rose's thorn?

Color the rose the same color as the one in the story

A Teacher's Gift

I am going to make a special gift for my teacher for Valentine's Day. First, I think about what my teacher loves. She loves dogs. No, I can't get her a dog! I think some more. Every morning, she drinks hot tea from a mug. I will decorate a mug for her. I use markers to draw a picture of our class. I fill the mug with chocolates! She will love it.

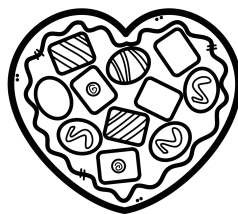

What is the first gift idea that the student has?

dog

mug

chocolate

flowers

Valentine's Day Cards

Mrs. Parker gets out the red and pink paper, markers, glue, and glitter. We are going to make Valentine's Day cards for our friends and family. First, I make my mom a card. I draw three red hearts. I put glue around the heart and sprinkle glitter on top. I tip the glitter into the trash so I do not make a mess. My mom is going to love it!

Do you think glitter is messy? Explain why or why not.

Color the hearts the same color as the one in the story.
